Senator Holland, Chairman of the Committee on Judiciary "A," submitted the following report:

Senate Chamber,
Tallahassee, Fla., May 12, 1937.

Hon. D. Stuart Gillis,
President of the Senate.

Sir:

Your Committee on Judiciary "A," to whom was referred:

Senate Bill No. 308:

A bill to be entitled "An Act to amend Sections 1, 2, 3, 5, and 33, and to repeal Sections 6, 18 and 27 of Chapter 17477, Laws of Florida, Acts of 1935, being 'The 1935 Social Welfare Act of Florida'; creating a State Board of Social Welfare, prescribing its powers and duties; authorizing the State Board of Social Welfare to act as the agent of the State of Florida in the administration of Federal relief funds; creating administrative districts; creating District Boards of Social Welfare to operate in said districts and prescribing the powers and duties of such District Boards; authorizing the State Board of Social Welfare to promulgate rules and regulations necessary to carry-out the intent and purposes of this Act; establishing a State Probation and Parole System; providing for the supervision of State and local institutions for destitute or dependent children, and providing for the disposition, care, protection, support and maintenance of destitute and dependent children; authorizing the State Board of Social Welfare to establish minimum standards of care for all local public and private institutions or agencies; providing for voluntary county participation in the establishment and maintenance of district institutions and empowering County Commissioners to designate the State Board of Social Welfare to act as its agent in the administration of any form of relief furnished by the counties and empowering the County Commissioners to use county relief funds to match Federal relief funds; providing for public aid and service to those unable to provide for their own needs; providing for the care of indigent transients and for the care of handicapped persons; providing for the liability and enforcement thereof of support of needy persons and destitute and dependent children and enumerating those liable for such support; providing for punishment as a vagrant of any able bodied male person refusing to accept employment at the prevailing rate of wages; providing for expenses and costs incurred by the operation of the State Board of Social Welfare, its agents and employees in the discharge of their duties under this Act; providing for appropriations for public aid and social welfare services; fixing penalties for the violation of the terms of this Act; and in general providing for the social welfare of the State; repealing Chapter 12288, Laws of 1927, entitled 'An Act providing for the creation of a State Board of Public Welfare of five members, two of whom shall be women, to be appointed by the Governor, fixing their terms of office, prescribing their duties, authorizing the employment of a secretary who shall be known as Commissioner of Public Welfare, and an assistant secretary who shall be known as Director of Child Welfare, and making an appropriation for carrying into effect the provisions of this Act,' as amended by Chapter 14483, Laws of 1929, Chapter 15720, Laws of 1931, repealing Chapter 9273, Laws of 1923, creating the Children's Code Commission; repealing Sections 1, 2, 3 of Laws of Florida of November 20, 1828, Chapter 1123, Laws of 1861, Chapter 1467, Laws of 1866, all relating to the Apprenticeship of Children; Chapter 13578, Laws of 1929, relating to the Florida State Commission for the Blind; Chapter 7378, Laws of 1917, relating to a Commission for the Inspection of Public and Private Institutions, and all other laws and parts of laws contrary to and in conflict with the terms of this Act."

Have had the same under consideration and recommend that the same pass, with the following amendments:

Amendment No. 1:

In Section 2, line 7, after the word "Board," insert the following: "but which shall not exceed Six Thousand ($6,000.00) Dollars per annum."

Amendment No. 2:

After Section 5, insert Section 5-A which reads as follows: Section 5A. That Section 11 of Chapter 17477, Laws of Florida, Acts of 1935, be amended to read as follows:

Section 11. PUBLIC AID AND SERVICE. It shall be the duty of the State Board and its duly constituted agents or agencies, insofar as funds may be made available for that purpose, to provide adequately for those who are unable to provide for their own needs. The said officials shall, wherever possible, administer such care and treatment and aid as may restore such person to a condition of self maintenance and self-support and shall further render such service to those who may become destitute or may be liable to become destitute, or who are in need of public aid or service in such manner as may be consistent with the aims and purposes of this Act.

As far as possible or practicable, families shall be kept together and shall not be permitted to be separated for reasons of poverty alone. Whenever and wherever practicable, public assistance and service shall be given to such needy person in his home; however, the State Board may in its discretion make provisions for public assistance or care in a boarding home, home of a relative, public or private institution.

Medical or other remedial care and attention for those who may be subject to the jurisdiction of the State Board of District Boards may be provided in hospitals, dispensaries, the person's home, or any suitable place, as provided for and directed by said State or District Board.

Whenever or wherever the State Board or any of its duly constituted agents or agencies shall receive an application or is informed that a person is in need of assistance or care, he shall make inquiry into the facts of the case and shall keep such records of the circumstances of such persons as may be prescribed under the rules and regulations by the said State Board.

When assistance is granted to a person in his own home or in any place outside of a public institution, such person shall be visited as often as it is necessary by an approved representative of the State Board employed for such purposes, in order that any care or service attempting to restore such person to a condition of self-support and to relieve his distress may be rendered, and in order that assistance may be given no longer than is absolutely necessary for that purpose.

When any able bodied male person, who is a public charge and the recipient of public assistance, shall refuse to accept normal employment at a rate of wage which is prevailing in the locality for the type of work to be performed, the State Board after a thorough investigation into the facts of the case, may refuse further assistance under this Act to such person. Such person or persons shall have the right to attend such investigation and protect his rights in said investigation.

Those receiving care in institutions shall be visited as often as may be necessary in order that it may be ascertained that they are receiving the necessary care and service needed by them, and in order that the institutions shall not be burdened with such persons' welfare any longer than is absolutely necessary in such case.

The State Board and its duly constituted agents or agencies, if and when funds are available, shall co-operate with state institutions in the following: necessary investigation of the cases proposed for commitment; necessary continuous contact and service with the families of persons residing in institutions; such service and care of persons discharged from state institutions as shall assist in their successful adjustment to normal and self-supporting community life.

Assistance shall be granted under this Act to any needy aged person who meets the following qualifications:

1. Is 65 years of age or older;
2. Has not sufficient income or other resources to provide a reasonable subsistence compatible with decency and health;
3. Is not an inmate of any public institution at the time of receiving assistance. An inmate of such an institution may, however, make application for such assistance but the assistance, if granted, shall not begin until after he ceases to be an inmate;
4. Has not made an assignment or transfer of property for the purpose of rendering himself eligible for assistance under this Act at any time within two years immediately prior to the filing of application for assistance pursuant to the purposes of this Act.

Assistance shall be granted under this Act to any needy blind person who meets the following qualifications:

1. Has no vision or whose vision, with correcting glasses is so defective as to prevent the performance of ordinary activities for which eyesight is essential;
2. Has not sufficient income or other resources to provide a reasonable subsistence compatible with decency and health;
3. Is not an inmate of any public institution at the time of receiving assistance. An inmate of such an institution may, however, make application for such assistance but the assistance, if granted, shall not begin until after he ceases to be an inmate;
4. Is not receiving old-age assistance;
5. Has not made an assignment or transfer of property for the purpose of rendering himself eligible for assistance under this Act at any time within two years, immediately prior to the filing of application for assistance pursuant to the purposes of this Act.

Assistance shall be granted under this Act to any dependent child, living in a suitable family home meeting the standards of care and health fixed by the laws of this State and the rules and regulations of the State Board of Social Welfare, who is under the age of 16 years and who has been deprived of parental support or care by reason of the death, continued absence from the home, of physical or mental incapacity of a parent, and who is living with his father, mother, grandfather, grandmother, brother, sister, stepfather, stepmother, stepbrother, stepsister, uncle, aunt, or in the home of any other relative or person in which assistance may be granted under the rules and regulations of the Social Security Board or its successor.

Any individual whose claim with respect to old age assistance, aid to the blind, or aid to dependent children, is denied, modified or revoked may appeal for a fair hearing to the District Board administering the funds in the political subdivision in which the applicant lives. The District Board may cause an additional investigation to be made and after a fair hearing of the case shall render a decision. If the application is rejected, the reasons for the rejection shall be given to the applicant. If the applicant feels that the claim should have still further consideration, he may appeal to the State Board. The State Board shall make a decision after granting the applicant an opportunity for a fair hearing. If the application is rejected, the reasons for the rejection shall be given to the individual. The decisions of the State Board shall be final.

The State Board shall prescribe such further necessary rules and regulations as may be required to govern the proper supervision of public assistance, care or service to those in need.

Very respectfully,

S. L. HOLLAND,
Chairman of Committee.

And Senate Bill No. 308, contained in the above report, together with Committee amendments thereto, was placed on the Calendar of Bills on second reading.

Senator Holland moved the adoption of the amendment.

Which was agreed to and the amendment was adopted.

The Committee on Judiciary "A" also offered the following amendment to Senate Bill No. 1:

That Section 7, page 4, (typewritten bill), be amended to read as follows:

"Section 7. This Act shall not apply to any contract or agreement between or among producers or distributors or (except as provided in sub-section (c) of Section 2 of this Act) between or among wholesalers, or between or among retailers, as to sale or resale prices."

Senator Holland moved the adoption of the amendment.

Which was agreed to and the amendment was adopted.

Senator Holland moved that the rules be waived and Senate Bill No. 1, as amended, be read the third time in full and put upon its passage.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And Senate Bill No. 1, as amended, was read the third time in full.

Upon the passage of the bill the roll was called and the vote was:

Yeas—Mr. President; Senators: Adams, Beacham, Beall, Black, Butler, Clarke, Dame, Graham, Harper, Hodges, Holland, Johns, Kanner, Kelly, Kendrick, McArthur, McKenzie, Murphy, Parker, Parrish, Rose, Savage, Sharit, Sweger, Tervin, Tillman, Touchton, Westbrook—29.

Nays—None.

So the bill passed, as amended, and was referred to the Committee on Engrossed Bills.

Senator Savage moved that the Senate do now adjourn.

Which was agreed to.

And the Senate stood adjourned at 10:07 o'clock P. M. until 11:00 o'clock A. M. Friday, May 14, 1937.
